Principal of Cue School

I live with my wife, Mel and we bought a house in Cue,

Youth-focused and passionate about making Cue a great place

Founded the Murchison Marlu Junior AFL Club

Volunteer firefighter.

The role I have in the community has helped me develop a deep understanding of the challenges facing our remote town. I am a dedicated and experienced leader who is committed to making Cue a better place to live, work, and raise a family. I strongly advocate for youth and am passionate about creating opportunities for young people. I believe Cue has the potential to be a thriving centre, and am eager to work with the community to make that happen. I will work to:

-Improve job opportunities for young people

-Support local businesses and attract investment

-Address the lack of housing

-Support the arts, culture and history in our community

I believe that I am the best candidate to help lead Cue into the future. I am a proven leader and a hard worker who is dedicated to serving your community.
